

BANCROFT MILL ENGINE TRUST

Gillians Lane,
Barnoldswick,
BB18 5QR, between Colne and Skipton

www.bancroftmill.org.uk

Registered Charity no: 517795

info@bancroftmill.org.uk

Steaming on Sunday 22nd July.

Doors open at 11.00am, engine runs 1.00-4.30pm.
Refreshments, souvenir shop and free parking.

Once again we have the ever popular Lancashire Society to entertain you during breaks in the engine run. It is led by Sid Calderbank, skilled in dialect poetry, song and playing the bones who will be accompanied by local musicians. Since his last visit Sid has performed at several local venues and appeared on 'Flog it' with a number of repeats. Bancroft has always led the way for others since 1920! Alex Fisher, a teacher of clog dancing in Lancashire schools will give us a demonstration of this art during the afternoon; it is her first visit to Bancroft.

Following the acquisition of the Bancroft archives many will be aware that we are preparing a database of former employees and we intend to make it available to all, initially on paper at the mill. HarryM would like to hear from you if you had relatives who worked at Bancroft and have any new snippets of information to impart. In the main we usually do not have full information on age, marital status, address or the actual job that people performed. If you can help please mail to either address below or even telephone! There will be a plaque unveiling ceremony later this year to honour four members of an Earby family who worked here from before World War II.

A few visitors to the last steaming expressed disappointment at not being able to have their portraits done by Noreen Lobo due to time constraints. She will be at the Rainhall Centre in Barlick on 29th July and will be pleased to accommodate you. She currently has an exhibition of water-colour landscapes open at the same venue.

Further information is available or at www.bancroftmill.org.uk

by e-mail from: HarryM@talktalk.net or info@bancroftmill.org.uk;
or you can find us on Facebook now. or from 01943 602118