RETURN VISIT OF PATRICIA JONES 19.05.13,
doors open 11.00am, steaming from 1.00pm.

2013 sees another steaming programme that features two local artists at work in our Engine Hall. Almost a year ago we were proud and delighted to welcome Patricia Jones, a very local artist, to Bancroft Mill where she worked on one of her landscapes in the engine hall. Patricia is the first of the two to return, and she will be present at our next steaming when she will again demonstrate her flair with landscape painting. Additionally she will have small items on sale such as note paper bearing small prints of her work, they were very popular last year with Bancroft visitors. Here, left, you see her at work against a backdrop of miniature working steam engines, part of a fast-growing group in the museum.

Last year's work close to completion.

RECEPTION

Is presently being staffed by Mrs Chapman, who has done so for many years and now joined by Jon Bettess. Jon is doubling as Membership Secretary and will have your 2013 membership cards at reception, please collect them from Jon if you have not already done so. We intend to issue new cards for each year in the future.

THURSDAY 16th MAY AT 7.00PM.

RAINHALL CENTRE, BARNOLDSWICK.

The Manchester Ship Canal was the last of several waterways to be built between Liverpool and Manchester. Mike Clarke looks at how canals developed between the two cities, and then takes us on a trip down the Ship Canal, stopping to look at the water-ways history en route, ending up on the Mersey at Liverpool. We at Bancroft thought that you might like this attraction. Entry is £2.00 per head. janewarman@rainhallcentre.com

STEAMING DATES FOR 2013

Please note that the Heritage Steaming dates published before 12th May 2013 have been in error. We apologise for this, the dates were published in good faith having been given to us along with our other steaming dates at the beginning of the year.

The actual dates are 7 days later than quoted, i.e: 14th and 15th September 2013.

If you would like to make a complete reprint, the present schedule is on page 3 of this newsletter and can be printed as a.pdf document.
